-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Art Unit: 2837

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 13-17 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 11-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,530,577. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the instant application recite the same manufacturing method for a layered sheet. The intended use of the sheet does not carry any patentable weight.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 8 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Behrenfeld (5,986,196).

Regarding claim 8, Behrenfeld discloses a device comprising: a patch (22, 29) comprising a resilient, pliable, adhesive body (22) and an integral flexible base (29); and a second patch (18), the second patch for stacking on the first patch, the first patch for attaching to the vibratable surface (8).

Regarding claim 11, Behrenfeld discloses the claimed invention. See above and Fig. 2A.

5. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Fyfe (6,806,212).

Regarding claim 13, Fyfe discloses the method steps of providing a flat surface (101); applying a polyurethane mix (27, col. 4, line 23, and Fig. 1) to the flat surface, laying a sheet (26) of base material onto the polyurethane mix (Fig. 1), and allowing the polyurethane mix to cure (inherence to the process).

6. Claims 14-17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims, providing a Terminal Disclaimer is timely submitted.

7. The claims are allowable over the prior art for at least the reason that the prior art fails to reasonably teach or suggest in claim 14 that the step of providing a release sheet on the flat surface as set forth in the claimed combination.
